PUBLIC MEETING ON THE CHESTNUT HILL RESERVATION RESOURCE MANAGEMENT PLAN

The Massachusetts Department of Conservation and Recreation (DCR) is undertaking a Resource Management Plan (RMP) for the 120-acre Chestnut Hill Reservation. The RMP will document and assess existing conditions and provide a framework for future management and capital improvement decisions. DCR staff and the consultant team will present a short overview of the project and invite public comment at a public meeting. Site plans, historic photos and other materials will be on display at a short Open House before the meeting.

DATE:	November 29, 2005
TIME: Open House Public Meeting	5:30pm-6:00pm 6:00pm – 8:00pm
LOCATION:	Circle Cinema 399 Chestnut Hill Avenue Brookline, MA

This is the first in a series of public meetings to solicit input on the Chestnut Hill RMP. For more information on the project, please contact Wendy Pearl, Project Manager, at (617) 626-1389 or wendy.pearl@state.ma.us. Additional information is available at DCR's Resource Management Plan Program website at <http://www.mass.gov/dcr/stewardship/rmp/rmp-chHill.htm>

DCR encourages public participation in this important project.
